Deep Dive into Garnishment Procedures in Georgia

Understanding the garnishment process as outlined in the bench book is crucial for legal compliance and effective debt recovery. Here, we break down the key procedural elements, emphasizing insights from the resource.

Initiation of Garnishment

The process begins with a judgment creditor obtaining a court order based on a debt obligation. The bench book emphasizes that:

- Proper documentation must be filed, including the judgment and a garnishment affidavit.
- The creditor must serve a writ of garnishment on the garnishee (typically an employer or bank).
- Service must comply with Georgia's statutory methods, including personal service or certified mail.

Notice Requirements

The garnishee must be notified of the garnishment order, and the debtor (garnishee's account holder) must be informed of the garnishment, often via a notice of garnishment. The bench book underscores the importance of:

- Serving timely notices
- Providing detailed information about the garnishment
- Allowing the debtor an opportunity to claim exemptions

Responding to the Garnishment

Garnishees have specific responsibilities:

- Respond within the statutory deadline, usually 20 days
- File an answer indicating whether the debtor has exempt income
- Withhold the appropriate funds if no exemption is claimed
- Handling Exemptions and Objections

One of the bench book's strengths is its detailed discussion on exemptions. Debtors may claim exemptions based on:

- Wages below a certain threshold
- Social Security benefits
- Public assistance or disability benefits

Practitioners are guided on how to process exemption claims, including the necessary documentation and hearing procedures if disputes arise.

- Post-Garnishment Procedures

Once funds are withheld, the creditor can:

- Obtain a court order for the release of funds
- Distribute collected amounts to satisfy the debt
- Handle disputes over exemptions or amount owed

The bench book emphasizes record-keeping and compliance with court orders to avoid potential liabilities.
